
Job title: Senior Trader

Client: International Investment Bank

Location: France

The Brief:

A French Investment Bank was undertaking a large international scale post-merger transformation project with their trading floor in Paris. The company needed a tri-lingual French, English and Italian Senior Trader with extensive international trading experience to support the new team due to the merger.

Carpenter Farraday were mandated due to their international knowledge and strong network of the trading market.

The outcome: After 9 weeks we were able to supply a candidate, in total confidentiality, which resulted in a job offer and acceptance by the tri-lingual trader.
