
Job title: Head of Private Clients

Client: Leading Asset Management arm of International Swiss Bank
Location: London

The Brief: Assigned to identify from within the UK market an exceptional senior private banker with strong management track record and International client acquisition strategy. Highly confidential mandate completed over a 4 month process.

The outcome: Successfully engaged in May 2009 to assume leadership of the International Private Client team in London.