

Private Client Investment Manager/Director

Package: £80k - £120k base + Discretionary Bonus

Location: London

Summary:

The private banking arm of a global asset management company with an excellent reputation and image, are looking for a Private Client Investment Manager/Director to join their Discretionary team.

Job description:

Our FTSE 100 client manage billions of assets on behalf of financial institutions, retail and institutional investors and high net worth clients from around the world, investing in a broad range of asset classes across equities, fixed income and alternatives. Their private banking division pride themselves on an unswerving commitment to their clients. Integrity, honesty and straightforwardness underpins all of their relationships.

Establishing and maintaining relationships is the core of what they represent. The successful individual will therefore have existing relationships built over time with private individuals, family offices, trustees and/or charities, which they will be able to bring them with them initially or once their restricted covenants are lifted. They will be operating within an open architecture platform and as well as building their own book, will be serviced by an award winning sales team.

This market leader seeks individuals who are keen to develop their careers and commit to the company for the long term. They offer very competitive packages and a platform to take your career to the next level.

Reference: GO10638