Package: Circa £100,000 + related benefits.

Location: West End, London

Summary:

Mid-Market, TMT focused Corporate Finance boutique, require a partner to join their established and respected London office.

Job description:

Mid-Market, TMT focused Corporate Finance boutique, require a partner to join their established and respected London office. The organisation has focused solely on the TMT sector since it's foundation in 2000. They have built an enviable reputation and strong deal history within this space and are now seeking a further Partner level individual.

A strong deal history and a desire to work in a pragmatic and truly consultative environment are essential attributes for this role. The firm concentrates on the circa €100 million space and has a broad European reach. The main focus has typically been within Technology and related subsectors, specifically Software and Services.

The firm is looking to bring on a further Partner with a complementary background, either within a related subsector or from a New Media or Clean-tech background. Demonstrable origination ability within a similar environment is essential.
