

Discretionary Private Client Investment Manager/Director

Package: Up to £100k Basic + Uncapped Formulaic Bonus & Competitive Benefits Package

Location: Devon

Summary:

An Investment Management Firm with a distinguished history is looking for a Discretionary Private Client Investment Manager to join their office in Devon.

Job description:

With a strong heritage in the UK stretching back over 100 years, our client is looking to add an experienced investment management professional. Each private client has their own bespoke portfolio, constructed using segregated Multi-Asset and Multi-Manager offerings. The successful individual will have a proven ability in maintaining client relationships, establishing new ones as well as following and implementing an intellectual asset allocation investment strategy.

Even in the current economic climate, their AUM has grown significantly via introductions from current investors, but also their strong network of professional advisers.

As their senior directors near retirement, there is significant potential to inherit clients and reap the rewards of those who have built these over the years. This is an excellent opportunity to join a prestigious brand in the Investment Management world, who continually to go from strength to strength.
