Job description:

Top tier, Global Investment Bank with excellent league table results requires a senior associate to join the Consumer Group in London. This role requires you to have previous deal experience and knowledge of the Consumer/Retail sectors.

The group has had an excellent year, covering all areas of corporate finance across debt, equity and M&A. They are one of the top performing teams at the bank and have a superb reputation within the sector.

You will need to be an experienced corporate financier, with excellent analytical skills and a demonstrable track record within a well regarded Consumer/Retail group at another firm. There is a good amount of head room within the group and you will get great exposure to leading transactions and assisting in origination.

A second European language would be beneficial, especially German, Italian or Spanish.
