

Junior VP – Nordic Coverage Investment Banking London

Package: Circa £90,000 + Bonus

Location: London

Summary:

Leading Bulge Bracket Bank seeks a junior VP for their Nordic Coverage team based in London.

Job description:

This firm has an excellent track record of transaction execution in the region and regularly feature among the top firms in the Nordic M&A league tables every quarter. Throughout the past year they have closed a handful of transactions and their pipeline is now looking very healthy for 2010. On behalf of the bank's successful and well established Nordic coverage team we are seeking a junior VP to be based in the city.

Candidates will ideally come from a leading investment- or bulge bracket bank and have solid experience of transaction execution, working on mid to large cap deals in the Nordic region. You will be responsible for managing down and will work closely with the head of the team to achieve set milestones and tight deadlines. Further responsibilities include significant client contact and frequent interaction with the origination team. Successful candidate will therefore have proven leadership skills and be motivated to achieve on both a personal and team level. We are seeking individuals with an excellent academic track record who can demonstrate great results and a top ranking with their current firm.

Fluency in at least one Nordic language is required.
