

Senior Private Banker - Russia/CIS

Package: £130,000 - £140,000

Location: London or Geneva

Summary:

Reputable International Boutique Wealth Management group within a large Investment bank is looking to strengthen its growing presence in the Russia & CIS markets in London or Geneva. On their behalf, we are seeking to identify seasoned Private Bankers who will provide Private Banking & Wealth Management services and build/maintain relationships with clients in that region.

Job description:

Our client is a leading international player both in the UK and in Switzerland and has a strong reputation amongst UHNW clients. The Wealth Management group is strengthening and growing its presence in Russia & CIS through the appointment of a Senior Private banker, servicing UHNWI clients either from their office in London or in Geneva.

The successful candidate will have at least 8-10 years experience in Private Banking managing, structuring and advising UHNW Russian clients. This individual will demonstrate a deep understanding of the investment market, a strong ability to acquire new clients and have an established network of UHNW individuals in Russia & CIS.

The successful candidate will be currently managing a mature book of business and will be able to demonstrate a clear business plan to transfer/introduce new client money in the first 24 months. Fluency in English and Russian is essential. Candidates must be willing to relocate to London or Geneva.

Reference: JK10706