Job description:

The Asian Equity Sales desk at a top tier bulge bracket bank requires an experienced sales person (VP / Director level) with excellent product knowledge as well as good relationships with UK Financial Institutions.

The bank is already one of the top players within Asian Equities and is currently expanding their Asian Equities sales desk. We would like to talk to Individuals with 4 years+ experience in selling Asian Equities to top UK financial institutions and with comprehensive knowledge of the Asian Equities market.

Although this is a cash equities sales position, it would help if you have some knowledge of derivatives and hybrids.
