

Desk Head Asian Equities Sales, London

Package: £250K-350K base + bonus

Location: London

Summary:

A challenging Greenfield opportunity for an entrepreneurial seasoned professional in the Asian Equities space to build up an Asian Equities desk covering UK and European institutional clients with Asian Equity research product.

Job description:

A global brokerage house based in Hong Kong is expanding sales operations to include New York and London. Quality teams of writing analysts are in place in Mumbai, Tokyo and Hong Kong.

This is a great career opportunity to build up a desk from scratch and develop it into a success.

Only senior professionals with over five years of experience selling Asian Equity research to UK/EU institutional clients and with an existing and transferrable client list will be considered.
