

Senior Private Banker – Saudi Arabia

Package: Base salary £90-130K dependent on experience

Location: London

Summary:

Stable & respected boutique private bank with excellent reputation is looking for a senior private banker to cover the Saudi Market from London.

Job description:

Working within a small team you will be given the freedom to work with very few boundaries, reporting to the head of the Desk.

As expected this is an open architecture PB from an investment product perspective but also from a pricing and geographic perspective too. They have an award winning structured products platform.

It is expected that you will already be a successful private banker with a sizeable book of business and be able to bring 25-30 million in your first year. You will provide tailored financial and WM advice to HNW & UHNW clients and be capable of maintaining and developing relationships with new & existing clients.

Ideally you will be currently working for larger private bank but understand the advantage of working for a boutique. You will currently be based in the UK or have the right to work in the UK.

You will be rewarded with a clear formulaic bonus.
